Our next CELTA course in Ipswich will start on Monday 27 January 2020 and will run every Monday (excluding holidays) for 20 weeks to Monday 6 July.

It is a part-time, one day a week course.

About the CELTA Course

The Cambridge CELTA course is the Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages. It is an internationally recognised introductory training and certification programme at level 5, and is designed to give you the essential skills, knowledge and hands-on teaching practice you need to teach English to adults. If you want to teach English in this country or abroad, this is the course for you.

The course is designed for people who:

• have little or no teaching experience and would like to enter the fields of EFL or ESOL
• are English teachers wishing to obtain an internationally recognised qualification
• are teachers with experience from any discipline who wish to extend and develop their existing skills, gaining a subject specific teaching qualification

The course comprises input sessions which include areas such as:

• the roles of the teacher and the learner
• understanding the contexts in which adults learn English
• classroom management skills
• lesson planning
• language analysis (grammar, vocabulary and phonology)
• reading, writing, listening and speaking skills
• teaching methodologies
• teaching basic literacy

The course qualifies you to teach English as a foreign language in establishments in this country and abroad. Having the CELTA shows employers you:

• have gained essential knowledge of the principles of effective English teaching
• have gained essential knowledge of the principles of effective English teaching
• have developed a range of practical skills for teaching English to adult learners
• have demonstrated your ability to apply your learning in a real teaching context
• are ready to begin working in a variety of ESL teaching contexts around the world
